Dear Mr. Weisberg:

While your letter did not make for pleasant reading, I appreciate that you shared your concerns about our cover story on the Warren Commission.

We were trying to tell the story of how the commission went about its work, without attempting to perform an independent examination of the huge volume of material that has emerged in the last 30 years about the assassination itself. We said that Earl Warren told his staff that "Truth is our only client" in a speech, not in a memo to his staff.

Critical or complimentary, it is helpful to hear from readers. I hope that you will continue to follow U.S. News, and that you will find we are still offering the candid and objective journalism you value.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Michael Ruby
